

Position: Campus Intern

Status: Full-time

Location: East Asia

Requirement: East Asian national believer; college graduate; called by God to campus ministry; Bi-lingual (Mandarin & English)

Description: The Campus Intern will work with CCI staff to find effective avenues to share the Gospel with East Asian university students and assist CCI staff in mentoring students and training churches in the CCI mentoring ministry. The Campus Intern will also be mentored by CCI staff in their personal spiritual growth & ministry.

Additional Information: This position is a pre-requisite for long-term service with CCI.

You should:

- Sense a clear calling to minister to college students.
- Have a similar vision for ministry as CCI.
- Be involved in a local church.
- Be in agreement with CCI's basic Statement of Faith.
- Understand your role is a vital part of this ministry.
- Be willing to take part in Cross-cultural ministry as required by supervisor.

Ideally, you'll:

- Be able to share the Gospel.
- Be willing to work hard with a Kingdom minded vision.
- Be willing to work on a variety of projects & platforms.
- Be willing to learn new skills.

You'll be able to:

- Be part of a multi-national team.
- Fulfill a vital ministry need.
- Be on a team that seeks to work hard for the Lord.

To apply for this position, email jobs@crosscampus.net with a copy of your resume and a couple interesting things you've done recently.